

- 22 Please pray with the Johnsons (Papau, recovering in Malaysia). They are in need of four new supporting churches to help cover 17 students and several teachers and a nurse they are supporting.
- 23 Pray with the Secrests for the planning of the three medical teams that will be traveling to Peru next year. This will include two trips to the mountains and one to the jungle.
- 24 Please pray for USAF Chaplain G to have favor with his leadership, especially the new commander and new wing chaplain.
- 25 Pray for Baruch Maoz as he works on study notes on Ezekiel as well as reviews editorial notes on his translation of Luke.
- 26 Bonnie and Larry Secrest (Peru) request prayer for wisdom as they plan to transition from their present work in the church in Barranco to another. This will include a process of visitation and consultation.
- 27 Please pray for the Selphs in Atlanta as they have the opportunity to rescue a family from the Jehovah Witness heresy by holding out Jesus in the Gospel.
- 28 Tim Wenger (Switzerland) gives thanks for the prayers for the conference they held on November 9. About 200 people heard a good message from Leonardo De Chirico. Please pray for fruit that remains.
- 29 The Masters (Argentina) give praise for answered prayer. The truck for their missionaries in La Rinconada has been fixed. They ask for continued prayer for the Brondo family in Cachi, as well as prayer for wisdom for the church leaders as they begin a women's ministry.
- 30 Pastor Obed Rupertus requests our prayers for Gabriel, a long-time and faithful member of the church in Santiago, Chile, who is very weak after years of fighting cancer and side-effects of chemo, and for his wife, Marcela, also a believer.

- 31 The Reformed Baptist Church in Carlos Paz, Argentina sees some of their number cold and distant, drifting from their former solid foundation. Please pray that as Pastor Jorge Molina points them back to the Savior they will hear, repent, and return to their former love.

Coordinator Gordon Taylor Ministry

- December 8 – Grace Baptist Church, Dewey, OK, Pastor Trace Foote: Preach and present RBNet PowerPoint.

REFORMED
BAPTIST
NETWORK

Email: admin@reformedbaptistnetwork.com

Reformed Baptist Network
860 Peachcrest NE
Grand Rapids, MI 49505

www.reformedbaptistnetwork.com

REFORMED BAPTIST NETWORK

MISSIONARY PRAYER GUIDE

“For the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD as the waters cover the sea”

HABAKKUK 2:14

- 1 Please pray for the physical needs of three of our missionary families: (1) The Emadis (Rep. of Ireland) ask for prayer for health, as their entire family has been plagued with sickness. (2) John Kortie (Native Amer., AZ) is recovering from shoulder surgery. He's in the second phase of "move but don't use" for the rest of the year. He is looking forward to resuming preaching in the jail once he is through this part of the recovery. (3) Trevor Johnson (Papua, recovering in Malaysia). His health is almost recovered, and visa docs have been submitted to Indonesia to head back. Please continue to pray for physical healing and that God would mightily work in getting them back to Papua.
- 2 Mark Hatfield requests prayer as he teaches "Biblical Theology of the Old Testament: Joshua through 2 Chronicles" at the Copperbelt Ministerial College in Ndola, Zambia (Dec, 2-6) and at the Lusaka Ministerial College in Lusaka (Dec. 9-13). Please pray for his travels and fruit as he teaches and preaches the Scriptures. He will return to the states Dec. 17.
- 3 Pray with Pastor Jon Rittersgaard for the preservation and deepening of unity among the members of Covenant Reformed Baptist Church of Barbados. They meet tomorrow for their 2nd semi-annual Members' Meeting this year.
- 4 The Baldwins (Serbia) request prayer for their module beginning in December. They continue to get harassment from local Evangelical pastors, partly because the school is Reformed. Please pray that the Lord would protect His school, and make His truth known.
- 5 Please pray for the family of USAF Chaplain G as they prepare for a new transition, and that the next few months would be spent strengthening their family in the faith.
- 6 Pastor Jon Ryttersgaard asks we pray for deepening of relationships among the women of Covenant Reformed Baptist Church of Barbados as they resume their book study in December, working through "Side by Side" by Ed Welch.
- 7 The Kilians (Zambia) ask praer that God would continue to providentially bring students and faculty to African Christian University. Enrollment is open for the next academic year and more students are needed.
- 8 Baruch Maoz gives thanks for the enthusiastic reception of his (Hebrew) commentary on Romans and asks we pray it will make an impact on the life of the church.
- 9 John Kortie (Native Amer., AZ) is preaching in Sells every Sunday morning for the rest of the year. Pray that Pastor Jay Juan will get much-needed rest and time with his family. Pray for John as he preaches through Romans 7-8.
- 10 Pray for the Baldwins' (Serbia) sons who are in college in the U.S. and are struggling being separated by a long distance. Kimberly recently made a trip back, but only for a very short time. Pray the Lord would give them strength and encouragement, and that they will find their hope for perseverance in Christ.
- 11 H & J in N. Africa are having their third leader's development training with some pastors and men aspiring to be pastors. They are seeking to help them grow in character, knowledge, and obedience to the Lord. Pray that H & J will communicate well, for these men to understand and take hold of what is being taught them, and for those they are shepherding to grow in maturity in Christ.
- 12 The Reformed Baptist Church in Santiago, Chile has been directly affected by the national violence and rioting as a teenager from the congregation has been pulled into participating in the burning and looting and ran away from home after being rebuked. Please pray for repentance and restoration!
- 13 USAF Chaplain S asks that we be in prayer for our service members deployed around the world and away from their families for the holidays. Pray for our chaplain corps members who are deployed with them, that the gospel would be preached boldly.
- 14 The Kilians (Zambia) will be traveling in the U.S. for much of December and January and express gratitude for the opportunity to rest and to fellowship with friends and family. Pray God would bless their time home with safe travel.
- 15 Please pray for Michael Emadi (Rep. of Ireland) as he preaches an evangelistic message at the Carol Service today.
- 16 USAF Chaplain S requests prayer for a dear friend and fellow chaplain who pastors the community worship service at Lackland AFB. His heart is to revitalize the worship service and grow the community in the depth of their faith.
- 17 National Pastor Jorge Molina (Carlos Paz, Argentina) requests prayers that the Lord provide a co-worker/fellow-elder. He labors very alone.
- 18 H & J in N. Africa report, "There are 5 believers in Twin Peaks. They have shown very little desire to be with us nor desire to meet together. For the first time, one of them suggested that we should gather the men to study the word and pray for one another. Please ask the Lord to bring this to fruition. Pray that they would not forsake meeting together."
- 19 The brother with a ministry in the Far East asks that we, "Remember...those who are mistreated—since you yourselves are in the body also" (Heb 13:3)—especially brothers and sisters in the Far East undergoing persecution.
- 20 Pray for Selphs in Atlanta today as they put on a Christmas program for the children and parents of their afternoon Good News Clubs.
- 21 Two of our missionaries request prayer for special Christmas services being held tomorrow: (1) David Vaughn requests prayer for the evangelistic Christmas service at the Reformed Baptist Church in Bouc Bel Air, France. (2) Tim Wenger (Switzerland) requests prayer for the Christmas celebration at RBC Neuchâtel. 2,500 invitations have been distributed. He also give praise that at their last church meeting they received 8 membership requests. The church has 20 current members.