MISSIONARY PRAYER GUIDE

"For the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD as the waters cover the sea"

HABAKKUK 2:14

- 1 The Korties (Native Amer., AZ) request prayer for Pastor Jay Juan as he teaches through the 1689 to the churches in the Baptist Indian Fellowship. The first fellowship was on January 26. Pray that God will equip Pastor Jay, that the pastors will be encouraged, and that their congregations will be instructed.
- 2 Michael Emadi (Rep. of Ireland) asks that we please pray for health for both Ashley and Méav. They have been sick, and they are not entirely sure what is wrong.
- 3 Baruch Maoz reports controversies are raging in Israeli churches. Please pray that the chaff will be separated from the wheat.
- 4 Please pray for the Kilians as they travel back to Zambia today.
- 5 Please pray for David Adams and the Poiema Spanish Publishing outreach in the city of Medellín, Colombia, as their new bookstore is open to the public this month.
- 6 Pray for Olivier Favre (France) as he is leading a Bible Study today on 2 Timothy in a Mennonite Church in the Mulhouse area.
- 7 The Baldwins (Serbia) request prayer for their 4th son, Andrew (18). He has left to attend school in another country for a very brief time, but it is difficult for him to be away. Please pray that the Lord would use this time to draw Andrew to Himself in a trusting and saving way.
- 8 Please pray for the Selph's in Atlanta as they resume the children's Good News Clubs. There are new children to acquaint with the major sermons and works of the Lord Jesus Christ.
- 9 Pastor Obed Rupertus (Santiago, Chile) asks prayer for the family of bro. Gabriel as he was ushered into God's presence on January 22. Please pray for wife Marcela and their two children in their loss.
- 10 Tim Wenger (Switzerland) requests prayer for a federal vote today. The people will have to vote on whether or not to include in the Swiss constitution protection for homosexuality. Pray that evangelicals will understand the implications of this law: that it will open them up to accusations of hate speech if they say homosexuality is a sin.
- 11 Olivier Favre (France) requests prayer for the semi-annual pastoral meeting of the Swiss Reformed Baptist pastors. Please ask the Lord to give unity and wisdom in the various decisions to be made.
- 12 USAF Chaplain S. asks that we pray for a family he has been working with for a couple months. Their marriage is on the verge of divorce, and he is earnestly praying the Lord will heal the pain and bring repentance, forgiveness, reconciliation and changed behavior. Pray for this family, for the marriage, and for their children.
- 13 H & J in N. Africa report that the Lord has given them more inroads with a few believers they know in their city. For the first time one of them actually came to their church. It was an answer to prayer. Please pray they continue to grow closer in their relationships with the believers there.
- 14 Give thanks to the Lord with Jon Ryttersgaard and the congregation at CRBC Barbados that the books they asked everyone to pray about were cleared by customs, and they have received them.
- 15 The Emadis (Rep. of Ireland) request prayer for their visa situation. They reapply in March and the government has become very strict on giving ministry visas lately.

Sending church, Heritage Baptist of Owensboro, has started a fund with $40,000! Because of this, another family has given $25,000. They have $65,000 starting money of the needed $300,000. Please pray that these funds will be supplied.

- 21 Pray with USAF Chaplain S. for our Chaplains and Religious Affairs Airmen (chaplain's assistants) deployed around the globe. May they be ambassadors of hope to our men and woman abroad, and may the Lord use them to bring the light of the gospel to those in darkness.
- 22 The Korties (Native Amer., AZ) rejoice for the opportunity of John's pulpit fill for Pastor Jay Juan in Sells, AZ, and report they enjoyed their time with the folks of 1st Papago Baptist. They are now spending time at Santan Baptist to encourage Pastor Lee Miguel and help wherever needed. Please pray for a good ministry.
